Gene Jackson,

I included you on the Gramling Family mailing a few seconds ago. Much of the information was recently updated by a new release of the Gramling book by Alfred Gramling. You can contact through the Orangeburgh German-Swiss Genealogical Society via snail mail. Also, via snail mail, Harrel Shewmaker, 1600 Wirt St. Paragould, AR 72450 has info on the Gramling line from Spartanbrug Co. SC.

Thanks for your reply. The first Gramling ancestor I know about was b. in SC in 1790 and lived there until moving to AK in 1854. He had two sons, Martin and Richard and possibly Thomas. Rubin first married Martha Key (mother of the 3 I just mentioned and also Sallie J. Gramling Cothren, Betty McElwrath Gramling, Henry, and William. Rubin then remarried a Bolenger and had a son Tom. Then he remarried a third time to a Seay, and they had three children: Jane Gramling Dennis, Anna, who d. in the typhoid epidemic of 1874, and Bud Gramling. My information is confused but I think Rubin's oldest son was Benjamin M, b. SC Oct 12, 1816, who himself married 3 times. If any of this makes sense, please let me know and I can mail you a more accurate and complete descendent chart. Thanks so much. I have an 1820 census of

SC, and on it appears Martin Gramling, Christian Gramling, and Michael Cramline (all in Orangeburg Co) and a Ruben Gramblew, Adam and John Gramblew in Spartanburg Co, which could be a misspelling by the census taker. I'm eager to trace the Gramling line back further than 1790, and it's an unusual name, but records seems to be getting sparser. Thanks for any help you can give.
